

Some thoughts from this year's RCIA participants

(We'll be sharing some of these with the parish over the next few weeks.

Please pass them along to others who may be interested!)

What brought you to RCIA?

I've always been a Christian, but when I decided to marry Mike, I wanted us to practice our faith in the same way in the same church. The Catholic Church is a close community and I wanted to be a part of that.

What did you find/experience while in RCIA?

I found understanding of the Catholic faith, why we do the things we do and believe in the things we believe. I've experienced peace, love of others, community, and the presence of the Lord.

Why would you recommend RCIA to someone?

Even if they did not want to become Catholic, this class is very educational in regards to common misconceptions about the Catholic Church. RCIA tells you why Catholics do what they do and believe what they believe. If they do want to become Catholic, it is good to know what you are getting into and you will have guidance through the whole process.

What brought you to RCIA?

A gospel about John the Baptist brought me to RCIA. I wanted to complete the sacraments.

What did you find/experience while in RCIA?

I found beautiful people and a lot of support in RCIA. I had a lot of moments where I knew God was working in my life.

Why would you recommend RCIA to someone?

I would recommend RCIA because it gets you closer to God, and you meet wonderful people along the way.
